

BECAUSE STIGMA STILL PREVENTS MENSTRUAL JUSTICE

A live research-based performance and creative workshop from menstrual health pioneer, Kate Shepherd Cohen

- 90-minute session (lecture + performance + creative workshop)
- Simple tech setup projector, mic, sound system
- Venue provides accessible space (100 capacity ideal)
- Marketing toolkit and press materials provided
- Your venue will appear in the Limited Edition Tour Publication

WHY HOST IT AT YOUR VENUE?

- Timely: As menstrual culture enters the mainstream, this project gives a growing but fragmented movement the unifying identity it needs.
- Engaging: A dynamic blend of academic insight, artistic expression, and audience participation. Ideal for museums, festivals, universities, student unions, and equity-driven workplaces.
- Inclusive: Created for diverse audiences, welcoming people of all genders, cultures, and identities.
- Collaborative: Each venue contributes to a growing national artwork, culminating in a public projection and exhibition in London (Oct 2026).
